(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the action taken by Government for the stoppage of such drugs in the mareket?

THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. Recent newspaper reports have alleged that drugs like Analgin, Terfenadine. Astemizole, Lynestenol, Phenylubutazone, Phenolphthalein, Piperazine, Furazolidone, Nitrofurazone, Droperidol and nimesulide are being marketed in the country;

However, these news report misleading. Drugs like Analgin and Furazolidone are currently used in large number of countries including many developed countries. There is no system of global banning of a drug. Certain drugs and formulation banned in some countries at time continue to be marketed in other countries. The decision to do so is normally based on risk assessment process which is influenced by a number of factors such as the disease pattern in a country, the varying reactions of certain ethnic groups in a given population to the drug and the availability of safer substitutes as well as the cost factor involved in the treatment of a particular disease. There is also the overall awareness that administration of any drug is not absolutely free from side effects or adverse reactions in a statistically insignificant minority of the population.
